Announcement of Ramkhamhaeng University

Subject: Refrainment from Acceptance of Gift and Reward for Performance (No Gift Policy)

Fiscal Year B.E. 2567 (2024)

Ramkhamhaeng University realizes the significance of preventing corruption and fostering of a culture of integrity within the University. This is aligned with the Cabinet's resolution on December 8, 2020 endorsing the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (Amended Issue). The fourth activity in the Plan is the development of a transparent Thai bureaucratic system without undue advantages. The activity's first item of the first objective determines all government agencies to declare that their officials refrain from acceptance of gifts and rewards for performing duties (No Gift Policy).

As the top administrator of Ramkhamhaeng University, I would like to declare my firm intention to resist all forms of corruption and misconduct. Ramkhamhaeng University is a government agency in which all officials do not accept any gift or reward for performing duties (No Gift Policy). Administrators, government officials and personnel at all levels shall work together to foster an integrity culture and virtuous values in consistently performing duties with morality, transparency, and equity in order to derive an integrity university culture. We shall not pursue actions that may cause conflict of interests. Valuables or other benefits that have monetary value shall not be accepted, except those allowed by laws, rules, or regulations issued under the provisions of ethical conducts, or valuables or benefits in accordance with the criteria and quantity specified by the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC). We shall behave in alignment with the ethical standards of government officials to ensure compliance with the good corporate governance policy, adhere to the principles of good governance, and promote an ethical and transparent organizational culture.
